Mariachi Spectacular Showcase Competition at ABQ Civic Plaza, July 15, 2022

Mariachi Spectacular de Albuquerque's (MSA) mission is to promote culture, arts & excellence in art education demonstrating Albuquerque's ethnic Heart & Soul. Through MSA a foundation for life-long participation in the arts is possible. MSA builds bridges for inter-cultural appreciation in the Mariachi musical genre by encouraging and allowing interested parties who want to learn and develop musical skills, allowing for an increase in understanding of this musical and cultural art form or by providing the opportunity to simply be entertained through concerts offered. All of this and much more can be achieved through programs and opportunities offered in MSA. MSA is continuously contributing to the cultural understanding and appreciation of folk and Mexican music. Now in its 30th year, Mariachi prices have gone up, but it includes three days of classroom instruction at the Albuquerque Convention Center, taught by internationally recognized folk artists, and mariachi practitioners who are world renowned teachers/ethnomusicologists; as well as master teachers who also serve as role models. These celebrated Mariachi Maestros transfer their knowledge to future generations, as students learn directly from them. Classes are offered at beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels. This event serves as a bridge between masters and new generations and preserves the mariachi music genre.
